MILITARY AND NAVAL CHANGES.

Next trooping season the 8th Rajputs come to Hongkong, replacing the 100th Maharattas, who go to Poona.

The 3rd Brahman, now at Agra, exchange places with the 13th Rajputs at Hongkong next trooping season.

Major H. A. A. Livingstone, C.M.G., R.E., has been appointed Commanding Royal Engineer, Straits Settlements, in succession to Lieut.-Colonel H. V. Kent, R.E.

Engineer-Lieutenant E. W. Young has been appointed to the Tamara, additional, for charge of stores and duty with T.B.'s and to assist engineer-commander, to date 20th inst.

Rear-Admiral Lans has been appointed to succeed the late Vice-Admiral Zey to head of the torpedo service of the German Navy. Rear-Admiral Lans commanded the gunboat Hita in the Far East in 1900, and took part in the bombardment and capture of the Taku forts in June of that year. For this he was awarded the Order pour le Mérite. More recently he has been chief of the staff of the Navy under both Grand Admiral von Köster and Prince Henry of Prussia.

The Admiralty announces a number of appointments to the Minotaur, the future flagship on the China Station, on recommissioning, viz.:—Engineer-Commander G.
C. Beth; Engineer-Lieutenants G. J.
Hamilton, W. A. Corliss, D. Hill, F. W.
G. Smith, and F. B. Jacques; Lieutenants J. M. * (first), W. A. Egerton (G.), C. N. E. Head (T.), G. D. Ward (N.), C. B.
Land and R. B. England (P. T.) and E. T.
Wickham; Lieut. A. B. St John has been appointed to H.M.S. Albatross; Sub-Lieutenants F. N. Attwood, E. O. Priestly, and A. M. C. Stibman; Staff Surgeon F. B.
Handyside, M.B.; Surgeon A. R. Fisher; Fleet Paymaster G. B. A. Willis; Assistant Paymaster E. C. Anselm.

The Imperial Cold Storage Company's claim against the Crown for £280,000 damage for alleged breach of contract in connection with the supply of meat to the British army during the Boer war was decided in the King's Bench Division, on December 20, when the claim was dismissed with costs against the plaintiff Company.

HOW COUGHS AND COLDS ARE CURED IN BURMA.

THE following letter from the Superintendent of the Municipal office at Mandalay, Mr. R. G. Stevens, shows that the method of curing colds in Burma is not unlike that used in almost every part of the civilized world. He says:—“I have used Gibson's Cough Remedy for several years and have found it most efficacious in curing a large number of cases of coughs and colds. It is a most valuable remedy and is sold in every part of the world.”

THE SWING OF THE PENDULUM.

His-story is repeating itself. Once again the theory of the swing of the pendulum in political affairs is working itself out.
An electorate which four years ago sent the Liberal party back to power with a majority unknown before is now tiring of its idol and is restlessly seeking a change of Government. This is, we venture to think, the true meaning of the returns so far made in the elections which are proceeding at home just now.

At their nature Unionists have every reason to feel jubilant and elated. They made a magnificent start in capturing nearly 40 seats from their opponents in the first two days, and ever since the tale has invariably been the same—a largely predominating figure for Mr. Balfour's party in this particular connection. The boroughs, which generally give the Liberals a pretty solid vote, this time went decidedly against the originators of the revolutionary Budget, over which the present truce is supposed to be primarily waged. The Ministerialists, who had been making such loud and hysterical professions of their anxiety and 'impatience' to enter on the fight, must have been given a rude shock at the set-backs which they thus early suffered. But it would appear that they were by no manner of means humbled or subdued by these staggering reverses, for, judging by Reuter's messages, they now began to pin their faith on the county constituencies—"the simple country folk" probably, whom they seemingly thought would easily swallow their bombastic va-jourings and plausible defences. Still, however, the vote continued to go against them, so much so that at the close of the first day of county polling, the Unionists had secured such a number of seats as to precisely correspond with their full numerical representation at the conclusion of the last General Election—158. And this when only just over half the divisions had been contested!

So the party of Empire now have the consolation of proving that every seat for which they return a representative will mean an actual pulling down of the huge majority which they had to face in the Commons since 1906.

Judging from what has so far happened, the finish should be a close one.
There is every promise of Unionism claiming more seats than any other one party, but it is unfortunate for Mr.
Dalton and his followers that they have to fight single-handed. It is next to impossible that they should be in a position to outnumber a combination of the other three parties. So we imagine that although the Unionist element may overshadow either the Liberals, Labourites or Nationalists taken singly, His Majesty the KING will be almost sure to again send for Mr. Asquith, who will form a Ministry and rely on the Labour and Irish vote to carry him along. At the best this will be a precarious and unhappy existence for a party not so long since swelled up with pride and conceit at its own gigantic numerical strength, and beyond passing the Budget the 1910 Administration can hardly expect to accomplish a great deal.

There is one point which ought to be mentioned when contemplating the present position. It is the utter uselessness and futility of endeavouring to decide a single issue in a General Election.
In the present instance the Disunion was brought about as the outcome of the refusal of the House of Lords to give consideration to the Budget until the voice of the country had been obtained on its proposals. But who would care to seriously assert that this issue, and this alone, has weighed with the electorate in casting their votes? Lord Lansdown and his supporters must surely have foreseen the likelihood of either and most vital questions being raised. And even if it were possible to have focussed opinion exclusively on the Budget our system of conducting elections is such that a majority of candidates returned in its favour would not necessarily mean a preponderance of voters of the same way of thinking. If the real opinion of the people were required it would have been far more satisfactory to proceed by way of taking a plebiscite as is sometimes done in municipal affairs. But perhaps after all Lord Lansdown simply utilised the opportunity offered by the appearance of a Socialist Budget to secure the country's verdict on Liberal policy as a whole. If so, he and those who supported him must just now be feeling themselves thoroughly justified in having taken the bold and courageous step they did.

DEPARTURE OF GENERAL
MACHADO.

Distinguished Visitor's Indisposition.

His Excellency General Sir J. J. Machado and Captain Norton, who arrived by the English Mail Devanha on Friday en route for Lisbon, landed about noon. Portugal's High Commissioner is slightly indisposed, although nothing serious, being unable to use his hands owing to a rash. His Excellency called on Sir Frederick Lugard to thank him for his kind invitation to stay at Government House, which invitation he was reluctantly compelled to decline on account of his indisposition. Captain Norton and Mr. J. J. Leira, Consul General for Portugal and Brazil, called later in the afternoon at Government House and about 6 o'clock the distinguished visitors again boarded the s.s. Devanha which sailed about noon today.

The Nagasaki Press of 18th Inst. states that New York Times, the proprietor of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation's local agency, has disappeared from Nagasaki and it is reported that he is guilty of embezzlement. He is believed to have left Nagasaki. A warrant has been issued for his arrest. Nothing is known definitely as to the extent of the defalcations and the Bank's losses, but the usual wild rumours are being circulated.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A Gazette notification states that the school fees in Government Schools are payable in Hongkong currency only and not in subsidiary coinage.

All the warships in harbour were decorated to-day in honour of the ninth anniversary of the accession of His Majesty King Edward VII. At noon a salute was fired.

The preacher in St. John's Cathedral at matins to-morrow, Sunday, January 23rd, will be the Rev. M. Kirby, M.A., Assistant Chaplain of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Singapore.

The election of three Justices of the Peace to serve on the Licensing Board is to take place at the Land Office, Supreme Court Building on Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., instead of at the Magistrate's from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Amended rates of fees payable by all pupils, other than free scholars, at Queen's College, Saiyungun, Yau-mai, Wan-chai and Bellisio schools appear in the Gazette.
These rates are to come into force immediately after the China New Year holidays.

The Viceroys of Canton is awaiting instructions from Peking before handing over to the Hongkong authorities the robber Liang, who was concerned in the fatal armed attack on the Sikh escort near Taipo last year. The man was arrested by Chinese soldiers.

Judge Jenkins has fined the Filipino paper El Financiero pesos 60,000 for libelling Commissioner Dean Worcester.
The paper has stopped circulation, but in its place has appeared another native paper called La Financiera, which has a different set of proprietors.

All the arrangements are now complete for a most enjoyable concert next Tuesday —Dunns' night—at the Theatre Royal.
The booking so far has been very good and any of our readers who have not yet done so are advised to look in at Robinson's and get seats before it is too late.

Quite a number of floral tributes of appreciation were handed over the footlights last night to the principal lady performers in "The Toreador." The house was large and enthusiastic and endures were frequent. To-night, as the last appearance before the Race Week, the players should attract a bumper attendance.

President Taft has definitely committed himself to the policy of promotion by elimination in the United States army.
The President gave an interview to the press on January 15 in which he said that he favoured the retirement of supernumerary officers to make room for young and capable men. He would have a system by which the unfit would have been reached the age for retirement or not may be eliminated from the service and their places filled by the fit. The interview has created great discussion in army circles. It places the President on practically the same ground with Mr. Roosevelt.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. W. T. Payne, the chief Agent of the C.P.R. in the Orient, arrived in Hongkong from Yokohama to-day.

General Sir John French, having finished his inspection of the Hongkong garrison, left to-day by the English Mail steamer Devanha, for Singapore.

The skin market at Kalgan is being affected by Russian heavy buying, and large quantities of skins are also finding their way north from Mukden.

The Rev. G. Carrie Martin, M.A., of London, will preach in Union Church tomorrow morning. He has achieved a high reputation for scholarship and forceful-ness.

Mr. Frank Smyth, who recently broke his leg while skating near Brighton, leaves England on the P. and O. Nore on January 20. He is due in Hongkong about March 10.

"LA MASCOTTE."

Those who have obtained tickets in connection with the forthcoming performances of "La Mascotte," by the children of the members of the Club L'Etudiant are indeed extremely fortunate for a veritable treat in every sense of the word is in store for them. Within a short while of the booking office being open there was not a seat left and since then the demand for tickets has been overwhelming. On Friday evening the final dress rehearsal was given before a crowded attendance and everything promises well for a most successful run of the piece.

A MILLION FORGED STAMPS.

It is declared that a million forged postage stamps have within the past few months been put into circulation in Paris and other towns in France. For a long time the forger or his agent could not be traced, but it was known that the stamps devised had in every case bought the stamps from a foreigner. On December 12, an Italian, named Capellani, was arrested at a hotel in Paris, and in his luggage 230,000 forged stamps, similar to those already in circulation, were discovered.

RAMBLING NOTES.

"The Toreador," has been going strong all through the week, and I guess the brilliant little company will be glad when the last line is sung this evening. They will deserve a rest. I wonder whether the average theatre-goer realises what a tremendous lot of time and patience goes to the production of these charming musical comedies, and how big a debt of gratitude we owe to the A.D.C.? I know not.

Of course a lot of fun is got out of the thing by the company, but all the same it means the sacrifice of a good many of the comforts of life during the time the play is running. And the husbands of some of the charming ladies: what have they to say? I could tell one or two very good stories which have been floating around the Colony this week regarding the self-sacrificing qualities of these noble-hearted, but soured, public-spirited ladies—but I will refrain. Virtue is over its own reward.

My hearty congratulations go forth to Miss Briggs for the excellent and charming manoeuvre of her address at the Union Church Library Club on Thursday evening. Her argument for conferring the vote on women was unanswerable and she bore away the honour of the evening: it was a case of Pallas Athena first, the rest nowhere.
Personally I do not see why women should not have the right to vote conferred on them. Had not the suffragettes spoiled the cause by their insane and ridiculous behaviour women's suffrage would have been a prominent rallying-cry in the present political campaign.

It was a thoughtful act on the part of the Kowloon burglar this week, after robbing a house of two umbrellas, a parcel and a cap to leave on the tennis lawn a walking stick belonging to another house.

Though keenly interested in the general election now proceeding so actively at home, I am rather glad I am not in the midst of the fight myself. A general election in mid-winter must be killing work for candidates, supporters and reporters. What a terrible aftermath will be reaped.

I wish Mr. Raphael Bellisio had been more successful with the Rads of Walworth.
This is the second time he has been sent down, but if I know the young gentleman's disposition at all it is by no means a case of "Down and Out." We shall be having another general election within a year and the old Hongkong boy will fight again, I feel sure.

What with Lloyd-George having to seek police-protection and escape from one meeting in a fast motor car after another; a well-known travelling Peer, Lord Ronaldshay, regularly stamped from a platform; the wife of a prominent candidate plastered with rotten eggs and putrid potatoes, and another lady who sat on the benches with her hair and stones, some of the meetings must have been very unpropitious and quite in the style of the bad old days of yore.

But a more distressing phase of the election is undoubtedly the embarrassing lying that has taken place all round. The Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of Carlisle have both referred to this disgraceful feature of the campaign, though I fear the blurb of shame which their sermons brought to the cheeks of politicians was very evanescent. They are a tough lot, taking them generally, though quins of conscience occasionally disturb the equanimity of their digestion, I believe.

"We go into a foreign picture-gallery sometimes," said a speaker at the unveiling of a portrait of a very distinguished man the other day, "and we see a very fine picture before us, and beneath it the name 'Rembrandt.' We look at our catalogues for its description, and we read: 'Portrait of a gentleman.' Such a fit and neverbefall the splendid portrait that we have before us." And then he wondered why his audience smiled.

What a frightful condition the streets of Hongkong were in during Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Friday, owing to the sun and high wind, saw an improvement, thank goodness. Really I am not equal to describing the misery we endured during those dreary dreary days, but my friend Alastair McLachlan, from North of the Grampians, yep, helps me out of the difficulty. This is the "we hit o' ceep" he deposited on my desk last Thursday morning that was—

"Ach! sure, sure, sure," said Pat, as two typical pedestrians from two very different portions of the British Isles wended their way along the street on Thursday.

"I doot verri much, Pat, but that ye're wrong 'til now. Ye'll glaur, then, plidin' glaur, as thick as wall this mornin'."

"And who's to blame?" asked Pat.
"Well, I really canna tell ye; its no the sanitary board this time, they bother about rats and Pukfaham wat's mostly these days; an' I dinna ken anything about the Public Works in this country, but, zat care man and dianna said, 'A' the streets in this neglected town are a' alike, bad, d—bad.'"

"Sure thin," replied Pat, "seeing the elections are on well, better zote agin the Government."

Not bad for Alastair McLachlan—what do you think. And yet they say the Scotsman hasn't a gleam of humour in his whole mental outfit.

By the way I hope to see the Theatre Royal crowded on Dunns' night. A thoroughly popular programme has been arranged and an enjoyable evening may be anticipated.

A valued correspondent sends me from Glasgow the following bit of philosophy which, in view of the forthcoming Scottish festival, in words reprinted. At any rate I think I will conclude my Rambling Notes with it this week—

I canna think the weel-off ken—Unless they'venture themselves bein' pur-
The comforts o' a but an' ben.
We may feel scrippit noo an' then,
But the man that's a but an' ben on nair?
I canna think the weel-off ken!
We maybe little ha'e to len, But thankfu' hearts are glad to share
The comforts o' a but an' ben.
We maybe muckle ha'e to speen, But there's a joy in hainin' sair
I canna think the weel-off ken!
We're no ill-off, ye may depen', Wi' this to lighten o' our care—
The comforts o' a butan' ben!
Gang thro' the town, frae east to west, But bide a jiffy, let's be fast—
I canna think the weel-off ken!
The warrior o' a but an' ben!

MACAO NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

Macao, January 20.

It is quite a treat to see our fire brigade book up at last. Their timely appearance at a midnight outbreak on the 13th inst., confined the damage to one small tenement at No. 31 Rua do Teatro.
Called out again yesterday at 5.30 p.m. in the direction of Mong Ha, engine and hose-men were followed by crowds of sightseers who drove or trooped out to the rural locality. But there was not even a smoke-wreath discernible over the cots which dotted the plain. A posse of picket-guards scoured the neighbourhood and we subsequently learnt that two Chinese girls engaged in manipulating fire-crackers were on their way to the depot with a load of the combustibles representing their day's work when an explosion occurred in which one of the women was badly singed. Hence the fire alarm.

Two little object-lessons as food for thought by the police authorities. Early birds on Tuesday stumbled upon the body of a new-born babe which some inhuman parent had left in a cavity on the slope to the west of the San Lazaro Church. There were distinct evidences that the poor mite had been smothered at birth. We understand it is by no means the first instance on record where Chinese female infants are thus summarily disposed of. The police were early on the scene.

A gang of unruly urubins attempted a mid on a poor fruit seller's stall. In the melée one of the youngsters got badly mauled. The poor dealer shortly after met with scant mercy at the hands of the enraged father who turned up on the scene with a couple of friends, being removed from the scuffle in a precarious condition. And all this under the very nose of a dusky guardian of the peace.

A large gathering of relatives and friends attended yesterday evening on the arrival of the S. S. Sui Tai which conveyed over the remains of Mr. Francisco Lau, a cloth merchant of Hongkong. Escorted by the Sisters, the native children from the Cassian Orphanage headed the funeral cortege all the way from the Steamboat Wharf, while three cross-bearers preceded the hearse which was bedecked with wreaths. The land followed at the rear.
Assisted by Canon Arringa and Soares the Rev. Father Taug performed the last rites.

Nine Chinese have been arraigned for complicity in the arson case in connection with the large fire which occurred on Christmas Day in the Rua Nova del Rei.

The beacon at the Gui Fort is being equipped with the new electrical apparatus which came to hand a year ago. Pending its installation a white light, having a six mile range under good atmospheric conditions, is now hoisted alongside the structure.

In virtue of a ministerial order Mr. F.
Janssens, residing at Hongkong, has been recognized by the authorities as Belgian Consul at Macao.

The Robin was here for a few days and the Vigilante has left us again.

Captain Jose Suiz da Silva, of the old sailing ship days, died last night at the age of 91.

Mr. Auguste Vernon is back in the Colony from his trip to Lisbon where his agent now awaits the final decision of the Home Government in the matter of the proposed loan from a Franco-Belgian syndicate. The tender, as I have it from official sources, is based off an advance of $8,000,000—in return for the exclusive right to farm out all the gambling non-copolies. The syndicate further binds itself to pay the Government the yearly sum of $1,200,000 during a period of forty years.
It is no more nor less than as stated here and as such may be looked upon as a windfall in the nick of time.

Advices from Trieste state that the year is closing with extremely satisfactory financial results for the Austrian-Lloyd.
Although wages and some other items of expenditure increased, economies were effected in the coal bill. The anticipated dividend is 5 or 6 per cent.

THE MANCHURIAN
RAILWAYS.MR. KNOX'S PROPOSALS

Thanks.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, January 22.

Russia has replied to the proposals of the United States concerning the neutralization of the Manchurian railways rejecting the suggestion. She declares that such a policy as Mr. Knox outlines would injure Russia's State and private interests.

Japan has also replied declining to accept because it would not be to the advantage of Japan.

These replies make no changes in the commercial situation in Manchuria.
Japan is strictly adhering to the policy of the open door.

THE LATEST CRAZE AT HOME.

The fashionable craze of the moment is neither rinking nor aviation, but the drinking of sour milk or the munching of specially prepared tablets charged with sour milk bacteria. The craze began a little while ago with the publication of Dr.
Reinhardt's book, "120 Years of Life," in which he detailed Professor Metchnikoff's theory that sour milk prepared according to the Bulgarian plan is the realelix of life.
Dr. Metchnikoff, the famous pathologist of the Pasteur Institute of Paris, was much struck when visiting Bulgaria to find that in many of the country parts the proportion of centenarians was greater than anywhere else. He started to investigate the cause, and came to the conclusion that the long life of the people was due to the fact that they use sour milk in their daily living culture of bacteria and fungi, which destroys putrefactive organisms in the human stomach, so at least Dr. Metchnikoff maintained. This theory, which has since been supported by Dr. Oeler, has caught on amazingly. Every chemist's shop is full of sour milk lozenges and chocolates.
Every careful wife is urging her husband to drink specially pre-ared Metchnikoff milk that is sold by the leading daily companies at fabulous prices. Cooks have fresh butter added to their lives by being asked to prepare sour milk at home, a process taking many hours and much careful regulation of temperature. Meanwhile, the folk to whom an expenditure of from 10s. to a pound per head per week for specially prepared sour milk is impossible, can obtain much the same result by drinking the once despised butter milk.

PARLIAMENT CONSISTS OF 670 MEMBERS, DIVIDED AS FOLLOWS:—ENGLAND, 485; IRELAND, 103; SCOTLAND, 72; WALES, 30.

(Reuter's Special Service to the China Mail.)

London, January 21.
The Conservative papers are exulting over the county constituency gains, which are exceeding anticipations.

LIBERAL EXCUSES.

The Liberal papers admit that the result was totally unexpected, and declare that intimidation has been exercised to the utmost. They also complain that the Conservatives have had an enormous advantage in motors.

MR ASQUITH ON FISCAL PROSPECTS.

Mr Asquith, speaking at Ladybank, said that whatever might be the composition of the new Parliament it could already be confidently predicted that it would not have any mandate from the great industrial areas to interfere with Free Trade.

FURTHER UNIONIST GAINS.

In addition to the thirteen already mentioned, the Unionists secured two more gains yesterday. These were at Huntingdon and Brentford respectively.

BIG SOCIALIST DEFEATED.

London, January 22.
Mr Lulu Harcourt, Mr T. W. Russell and Mr Reilly have been re-elected.

Mr Victor Grayson, Socialist, has been defeated.

ELECTION PARS.

Still the Unionists continue on their victorious career. Their latest gains are most significant. They will have a fine fighting force in the new Parliament.

The defeat of the Liberal whip at Saffron Walden is a splendid accomplishment. The victor is Col. Proby, who has wiped out a deficit of no less than 1,288. Sir W. Duffell Bartlett successfully contested the seat last time. The rejected member, the Right Hon. A. J. Power, had sat here since 1901. He was made Liberal Whip in 1907, and was Patronage Secretary to the Treasury when Parliament dissolved.

There was only a 242 majority to overcome at Harwich and this has been accomplished by Mr Harry K. Newton, who was unsuccessful in 1906. Mr A. Levy Lever is the unseated member.

At West Perthshire, where Unionism has triumphed, the adverse majority in 1906 was 803. The sitting member, Mr David C. Erskine, did not again offer his services. The Marquis of Tullibardine, who is the victor, has seen a great deal of military service. In 1893 he served with the Egyptian Cavalry as Staff Officer to Col. (now Major General) Broadwood, during the Khartoum Expedition. For his services at Khartoum he was decorated with the D.S.O. He also saw active service in the Boer War, commanding the 1st and 2nd Scottish Horse. He was mentioned in despatches three times. He is only 39 years of age.

Mr R. A. Sanders was only defeated by 17 votes at Bridgwater in 1906. This time he has been successful.

A big majority—1,474—has been overcome at Leek where Col. A. H. Heath has displaced the sitting member, Mr R. Pearce. The successful member, who has experienced three reverses at Leek in 1892, 1895 and 1906. He however, sat there from 1900 to the last General Election. He is Colonel of the Staffs. Imperial Yeomanry.

The Right Hon. Henry Chaplin (U.) was thrown out at Saffron Walden by Mr Arnold Lupton (L.), who had a majority of 232. This time, however, Unionism has had its revenge, and Mr E. Reynolds has been successful.

At East Lincolnshire Sir R. W. Perks (L.), who had a majority of 979 in 1906, has been thrown out by Mr H. L. Blackburn. The defeated member, who has sat here since 1882, is one of the leading laymen in the Wesleyan denomination. He has not been such an ardent supporter of the Liberals in recent times as he formerly was.

Mr Edmund Lamb (L.) won the Leominster division. Hereford has also been won by a bare majority of 28 votes. His opponent then was Sir James Rankin, but this time he had to fight Mr de F. Pennefather, who has come out on top. The defeated member is a colliery proprietor in Northumberland, and a large land owner.

Lord Villiers has turned out Dr Rutherford (L.) at Brentford, thus overcoming a majority of 433. The new member, who is 37 years of age, is the eldest son of the Earl of Jersey.

The successful Liberal in 1906 at Huntingdon (Mr S. H. Whitbread) did not again come forward, but the Unionist (Sir John Gator) after more tried conclusions, was this time successful, defeating the Hon. O. Drett. The majority in 1906 was 409.

According to the new register, the voters in England and Wales number 6,221,722, in Scotland 765,208, and in Ireland 668,787.

The borough electors number 3,402,873, and the county electors 4,654,800. Over 640,000 electors, 6,717,050, are registered. 275,648 freemen, 23,974, and University voters 48,154.

Mr Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking at Llanelli, said: "The Tories are in a trap. When I recall the contemptuous things they have said on Welsh questions I am glad to think that a Welshman is at the trap. We have caught the large rats at last."

Apart from politics, Mr Birrell, who has been again returned, has the distinction of having added a new word to the language, to wit "Birrell," which may be taken to mean to discourage lightly and pleasantly on a familiar topic with the faintest touch of poetry and a great deal of literary charm. One of the best stories told about him concerns a poor stout, whose case Mr Birrell, when he was at the Bar, took up for nothing. When the case had been won the client gratefully sent him the sum of fifteen shillings, which he accepted in order not to give offence. A colleague reproached him, however, for this "unprofessional conduct" in taking less than gold. "But I took all the poor beggar had," said Mr Birrell, "and I consider that is not unprofessional."

The readers of the Daily News subscribed £2000 for the purchase of election posters and literature on the occasion of the Gladstone Centenary.

Mr R. B. Haldane, Secretary of State for War, has been suffering from inflammation of the eyes, and has therefore been unable to conduct his election campaign.

Mr Asquith, the Prime Minister, and Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, have been assisting him. His constituency has not yet polled.

The Rt. Hon. L. V. Harcourt, one of the most popular men in the House of Commons, represents the Monmouth borough, which at the last election he carried by a majority of over 1,000.

The Rt. Hon. T. W. Russell has held his own in Tyrone where in 1906 he only got through with 283 majority. Mr T. M. Stalp has also held his own at Louth, where last election he was unopposed.

The defeat of Mr Victor Grayson will not be regretted by any thinking man. His behaviour in the House and at public meetings in Colne Valley sent him up the Westminister has brought many a blush of shame to British cheeks.

DUFFS INTER-CO. RESERVES.
Bulls. C. Co. Reserves met E. Co. Reserves yesterday. During the first few minutes E. Co. did most of the pressing, keeping Smith, E. Co. pressing, and making well employed. In the half E. Co. scored 2 goals to E. Co. 1. During the second half E. Co. proved themselves the superior, E. Co. lacking combination. Minter, E. Co. centre forward, missed some splendid opportunities of scoring, while Boulter made some splendid saves in goal for the same side. The game finished in a draw, each team having scored 3 goals.

Billiards.

In the semi-finals of the Y.M.C.A. Handicap Mr. R. C. Barlow won from Mr. H. J. Winn and Capt. Baker won from Mr. J. L. McPherson.

WEATHER REPORT.

The following notice is issued from the Hongkong Observatory.
On the 22nd at 12.05 p.m.—The barometer has fallen rapidly over E. Japan owing to the depression, which is moving into the Pacific to the South of Hokkaido. Pressure has increased moderately over W. Japan, China and Formosa. It remains high to the North of the Yangtze valley. Strong monsoon may be expected in the Formosa Channel and the Chios Sea.
Hongkong rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. to-day, 0.00 inches.
Forecast for the 24 hours ending at noon to-morrow:— 1.—Hongkong and Neighbourhood: N.E. winds, fresh to strong; dull, some rain.
2.—Formosa Channel: N.E. winds, strong.
3.—South coast of China between Hongkong and Amoy: Same as No. 1.
4.—South coast of China between Hongkong and Hainan: Same as No. 2.

COMMERCIAL.

SHANGHAI REPORT.

Messrs. Vernon and Smith in their weekly report dated 21st January state:—Our local general market has ruled distinctly dull, and we have nothing of any importance to report in the way of business. The near approach of the Chinese New Year is already having an effect on the market, and with an inclination to decline rates it is difficult to induce buyers to come forward. The rubber market has been fairly active, and a fair business has been transacted in miscellaneous stocks at in most cases, advanced prices. Shanghai London closes at 1/7 and Shanghai at 7/4.

Banks.—Hongkong and Shanghai have ruled very quiet with only small sales at 1,000, sales at that rate ruling the market at time of closing. The London rate has declined to 229.10, and Shanghai quotes $1.027 at ex 73. Nationals remain unchanged and without business.

Marine Insurance.—With the exception of further sales of North China at 113, Canton at 143 and of Unions at 905 and 610 we have no business to report under this heading.

Fire Insurance.—The market is completely neglected and shares are on offer of Hongkong at 36 1/2 and of China at 118 without finding any buyers.

Shipping.—Indo-China are weaker with likely sellers at 63, and with no takers. Hongkong, Canton and Macao remain on offer at 32 without inducing buyers to come forward, and it is probable that offers of 31 1/2 would be accepted. Shell Transports are neglected locally. The London rate is now 88.6. Other stocks under this heading call for no remarks.

Refineries.—China Sugars have been placed at 138, but close with sellers. Luzon continue on offer at 21, with no sales reported.

Mining.—With the exception of Langkats which continue to advance and close with buyers at 1,020, we have no business or changes to report under this heading.

Docks, Wharves and Godowns.—Hongkong and Whampoa Docks have declined and after small sales at 50 and 51 are enquired for at 52; shares, however, at these rates are scarce and the market closes firm. Kowloon Wharves have been sold at 68, but with the exception of a few shares which were forced off the market at that rate none are available under 61. Shanghai Docks have experienced a small boom on somewhat unreliable rumors of anticipated large orders from the Chinese Government in connection with the building of a new navy. Shares advanced and during the week at 75, 76, 78, 80 and finally at 81, the market closing in the North at the last rate. Hongkong Wharves have declined to 124 with sellers. New Amoy Docks remain unchanged.

Land and Buildings.—Hongkong Lands have found buyers at 102 and close firm at that. Humphreys have been placed at 8 and sellers at that rate the market at time of closing. Kowloon Lands are enquired for in a small way at 27 1/2 after a decline from 28. Other stocks under this heading show no changes and call for no comments.

Oat Mills.—Ewes have declined in the North to 133, International to 68, Lion King Mills to 97, and Soy Chees to 100. The Chinese Maritime rates are taken from the latest Shanghai circular.

Rubbers.—A fair business has been put through during the week at generally speaking, improved rates. The London market has ruled very firm and buyers have been keen in at various times up to the above quoted and all close steady to strong. Leubury's have ruled unaccountably quiet and have been made at 58 and 59, closing with buyers at the former and sellers at the latter rates.

Dairies.—Dairies have changed hands at 16 1/2, Philippines at 10, Morning Post at 25, China Lights at 6 1/2, and Cements at 7.10 to 7 1/2, the last closing with sellers at the last-named rate. We have no further changes or business to report under this heading.

Fuzhou.—Messrs. Lamke and Borge in their freight circular dated Saturday, 22nd January, state:—The period, since our last report was written on the 5th instant, has produced a change for the better, contrary to what was expected. Demand for tonnage, Saigon to Hongkong, has again appeared on the scene and a fair amount of chartering has been accomplished. At the close operations in most directions are at a deadlock, and it is feared that owners will have to be content with a dull time until Chinese New Year is past.

Saigon/Hongkong.—The market, Saigon to this, opened with a tone accepting 19 1/2 cents and the rate has slowly trended upwards to 15 cents per ton.

After 15 cents had already been paid, a prompt boat accepted 14 cents only, while for a little later dates 15 cents was again maintained. Inquiries for handy sized vessels to commence loading immediately after the holidays have been put on our market at 14 cents, which rate owners have declined to accept, and we have not heard of any business done as yet for forward loading. Saigon/Philippines has also had some fresh business, rates ranging between 22 and 23 cents according to the quantity offered. Saigon/Singapore.—A charter has been effected at $3,900, Saigon currency, with option of Hongkong at $4,300.—Hongkong currency. For cattle trade, Norw., 50¢ per ton, taken for from Phnompenh to Hoilo and Manila at $5,000 lump sum; the extension of the charter of the s.s. Kijel for a further couple of weeks also reported on same terms as last. Yangtze Freighters are very quiet, no further inquiries for tonnage have been put on our market since last reported. Dairies and Chefoo/Canton.—Three settlements have taken place during the fortnight, two at 24 cents and one at 20 cents per pound. Further prompt tonnage is being offered without finding buyers. A steamer is also reported doing business in Shanghai, the Norw., a Proper 28,000 tons, from Saigon to Norw. on lump sum basis of $4,900. Northern Freighters.—Some ships have been forced to lay up for want of paying cargo, and are taking the opportunity of undergoing their annual overhaul. Coal Freighters.—There is no demand for prompt tonnage. Only fixtures effected are:—Dairies to Canton $2.60, Moji to Hongkong $1.85, and Moji to Singapore $2 per ton.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPALITY.

The New Council.

Only nine ratepayers were nominated to serve as Municipal Councillors for the current year, and they will accordingly constitute the new Council without an election. They are:—Messrs B. J. Craig, H. De Gray, H. De F. Hutchison, D. Landale, H. A. J. Macray, O. Meuse, O. Selby Moore, W. A. C. Platt, and T. E. Trueman.

Three of the present Councillors retire Messrs F. C. Heffer, W. D. Little and J. Practice, and are replaced by Messrs H. J. Craig, H. de F. Hutchison and O. Selby Moore. While the services of the former will be missed, there can be no doubt that the oratorical powers of the Council have been increased by the inclusion of Mr H. de F. Hutchison, who can also count among his qualifications for office a close study of and keen interest in Municipal affairs, extending over a number of years. Both his new colleagues are men of business experience; intimate with local conditions. Mr G. W. Noel is elected Land Commissioner for the current year.—N. O. Daily News.

COUGH REMEDY.

THERE is not a particle of opium or other narcotic in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and never has been, since it was first offered to the public. It is as safe a medicine for a child as for an adult. This remedy is famous for its cures of colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. For sale by all chemists and druggists.

REVIEWS.

Mighty Hunters, by ARTHUR RUSSELL. London, Longman's Colonial Library. (Hongkong, Messrs Kelly and Walsh).

"As a hunter Richard Carson had a record equalled by none in Chippewa or indeed, in the whole of Mexico. Of jaguars he numbered forty-seven to his rifle; of other beasts he had lost count. And Mrs Carson was a veritable Diana, with powers of physical endurance almost equal to her husband's, with nerves as steady and eyes as keen as his. These are the opening sentences of the Forward and they prepare the reader for some marvelous stories of hunting adventures in the forests and plains of Chiapas, Mexico. Many were the light places into which husband and wife tumbled, but their luck in extracting themselves was phenomenal. On the whole the yarns are most exciting, and though the 'long bow' has been drawn rather freely here and there, the general effect is distinctly exhilarating.

The Hindians of Dr Gray, by the very Canon P. A. SHEEHAN, D.D. London, Longman's Colonial Library. (Hongkong, Messrs Kelly and Walsh).

The Ireland which Lever described in his rollicking novels has completely passed away (if it ever existed) and the Ireland of the present day is rather a dull and somber place. Canon Sheehan tells here the story of a parish, priest and the little drama which developed in his parish in language which bespeaks the truth of the picture on every page. A learned theologian, Dr Gray's light pen only as it is called, and he has made no reservations, admitted no softening of its own infidelities by the subtler agency of love. He ruled his little parish with a rod of iron, denouncing the evildoers and the sinners from the steps of the altar Sunday after Sunday. A devoted Nationalist, he was yet an inflexibly just man and when the parish united to terrorize a man who had taken a farm desired by others, he threw all his weight against the majority of his parishioners. It was the same in the management of the village school. He was for the law above all vulgar prejudices. The character of the stern old ascetic is finely drawn. As one of his Protestant friends once put it, he was a Catholic in his heart and a Protestant in his head. In the end out of cog with his times. Yet in the end of his ministry, when, worn out and blind, he sought retirement, the parish realized the beauty of his inward nature, and sought, though too late, to make reparation.

Canon Sheehan has written an illuminating chapter on modern Ireland, helping one to realize the elemental forces still at work there and the wondrous change that has come over the village communities since the land began to pass from the hands of the few to the even closer grip of the peasantry.

The Opium Traffic, by R. C. HURLEY. Hongkong, Hongkong Printing Press.

Within the thirty-two pages of this pamphlet Mr R. C. Hurley has collected all the historical, commercial, social and political facts relating to Opium which can be obtained without trespassing on the verge of controversy. He shows that the opium was known in China in the eighth century, the Arab traders were importing the drug for medicinal purposes; that in 1607 a Commission appointed by the Emperor to investigate the opium trade reported that the plant was to be found everywhere. The smoking of opium had become fashionable by 1620, and when the Portuguese settled down at Macao they handled a trade of about 200 chests from India per annum. The first anti-opium edict appeared in 1729, while in 1753 China put an import duty on the drug of 3 taels per picul. In 1820 the average annual sales of Indian opium at Canton amounted to 5,000 chests. Into the hands of the Chinese the first so-called Opium War we need not here enter, nor into the more modern aspects of the question. Mr Hurley is not among those who condemn the opium trade. He holds that it has conferred inestimable benefits on China in the opening up of her many treaty ports which followed each dispute with foreign nations.

The Lone Hand, the Australian Monthly. Sydney. Price one shilling.

The Lone Hand for January comprises a full-fledged good thriller. It is a beautiful story of an Australian girl, as seen by Mr Percy F. S. Spence, steering her yacht to victory over summer seas. Miss Ethel Turner contributes a Christmas poem in which the different conditions prevailing in Australia and England are put side by side and are poetically contrasted. Mr Alak Sae driving the comparison even deeper by his accompanying head and tail-pieces. Mr Theodore Roosevelt continues his story of African game trails; Chas H. Bertie tells a rattling good story of old steamship days under the heading 'Sir Henry Browne Hayes, a stormy Petrel,' while other capital stories abound, one particularly pathetic being called 'Etella of the Panzrago,' which deals with a girl who has been put in the hands of a cruel and unscrupulous Australian. 'Australia's Amphibians' shows many a shapely limb and demonstrates how fond the people of the Southland are of bathing in the briny. A series of studies of Australian beauty as seen by various artists is another attractive feature of a thoroughly enjoyable number.
